Questions 29 – 34 are based on the following passage.

About 30 years ago in our town, there was this supermarket called 'Thrifty'. At that time, it was one of the few supermarkets in town. I used to collect picture cards of birds and animals that were given free with the cans of condensed milk that my parents bought monthly.

As an eight-year-old child, playing with these cards was a lot of fun. My younger brother and I would spend endless hours with them and sometimes we would fight over them. Yes, over nothing but plain old coloured cards with pictures of animals and birds. We would even ignore our treasured toys.

At the supermarket, we would see these cans of condensed milk and the picture cards attached as gifts. It was really tempting to just reach out and take the cards. The more I thought about it, the more desirous I became to snatch a few. In the end, my brother and I started tearing off these cards from the cans and stuffing our tiny pockets with them. We thought we had got away with it. Happily, we ran off to find our parents. But it was not to be.

Suddenly, a huge security guard, who appeared to be like a gigantic gorilla to us, boomed loudly, "Stop!" We stopped dead in our tracks. At our age, a full-grown adult was truly large and a hairy one was not just that but scary too.

We thought we were lucky that our parents were around. We thought we were safe but instead we received a terrible scolding. It was a lesson in life and perhaps that is why we have never stolen anything from that day onwards.

- A lay dead
 - B fell down
 - C halted suddenly
 - D stopped stealing
- 34 The children learned to be
- A brave
 - B honest
 - C cooperative
 - D responsible

Questions 35 – 37 are based on the following poem.

The Lake Isle of Innisfree

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made.
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honey bee
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow,
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings;
There midnight's all a glimmer, and noon a purple
glow
And evening full of the linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavements grey,
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

William Butler Yeats

Questions 38 – 40 are based on the extract from the short story The Pencil.

He ran home and told her how much he wanted that pencil.

“Zahid, you already have a pencil.”

“But, grandmother, it’s so short.”

“What’s wrong with a short pencil? We’re not rich.”

“My teacher always grumbles and says that my pencil is as short as the hair in his nose.”

His grandmother did have a little money. She had the two dollars that would be needed to pay the fee for “Parents Day”, which would soon be held at the school.

“Zahid, you don’t have school the day after tomorrow, do you?”

“No, I don’t.”

“Why don’t you go along with your Uncle Teh when he taps the rubber trees, You could collect the scraps.”

Zahid agreed. If he earned more than fifty cents, he could buy a ruler as well. His old one was so chewed up that the edge looked like a saw blade.

He bought the pencil. The first time he held his new possession, his hands trembled and he jumped with delight. He smiled broadly. He wanted to tell everyone about his good fortune.

Section B : Summary

[10 marks]

Read the passage and complete the following task.

Eating healthily is important for good health and this includes taking enough fruits and vegetables. So how should we consume these fruits and vegetables? Bugs Bunny is right when he chews his carrot raw. Eating vegetables raw or slightly stir fried is the best way without losing vitamins and minerals. Fruits should be eaten fresh and whole. Wash the skin well if it is edible.

However, if time does not permit you to shop for fresh fruits all the time, juice can be a convenient and no-fuss way to help fulfil the daily requirement. Go for 100% pure juice to get great source of nutrients, including vitamin C, folate, beta carotene, potassium and of course, phytochemicals to protect your body. So how much fruits and vegetables do we need to consume? Based on the Food Guide Pyramid, adults need to consume at least 5 servings of fruits and vegetables daily. For children, they should consume at least two to three servings so that their nutritional requirements can be fulfilled.

To get most out of fruits and vegetables, mix them up on a daily basis. Variety is as important as quantity. No single fruit or vegetable can provide all the nutrients and phytochemicals that your body needs to be healthy. The key is to eat a variety of fruits and vegetables, in different colours, every day.

Adapted from The Sunday Star, 2010
