Questions 29-34 are based on the following text.

Giving your kitten milk can cause upset tummies, cramps and severe diarrhea. Diarrhea can be deadly to kittens because it dehydrates their little bodies very quickly.

Cats and kittens do not need to drink milk and can live their entire lives without having one lap of milk. Water is all they will ever need. If you really want to give them milk then you can purchase special kitten milk which is lactose free from your pet food store, vets or supermarket but they really don't need it.

Most cats are lactose intolerant because they lack the enzyme 'lactase' which helps them digest lactose and take it into their blood stream. Lactose is the sugar found in milk. As undigested lactose passes through the kitten's digestive system it draws water from the intestines. Lactose cannot pass easily through the intestinal wall into the bloodstream, so it remains in the intestines. Soon, gut bacteria invade and fermentation sets in causing large amounts of gas to form. The result is pain and diarrhea for your kitten.

Very young kittens and indeed all mammals produce the enzyme lactase when suckling from their mother but the ability to produce the enzyme diminishes after weaning.

The bottom line is not to give cats or kittens milk to drink.

29. Milk can cause kittens to have ....
- A. fever.                      B. flue.                      C. headaches.                      D. Diarrhea.
30. The word purchase can be replaced with ...
- A. sell.                      B. buy .                      C. find.                      D. try.
31. Cats and kittens only need to drink ...
- A. milk                      B. fruit juice                      C. water
32. Cats are not able to digest milk because ...
- A. they have small digestive system.                      B. lactose can get into their bloodstream.
C. bacteria takes all the milk.                      D. they do not have lactase enzyme
33. Which of the following statement is true?
- A. Cats need to drink milk all the time.
B. Lactose can be absorbed by the intestinal wall.
C. Cats and kittenn produce lactase all their lives.
D. Gas is formed by bacterial activities and fermentation process.
34. A suitable title for the article is ....
- A. Why milk is good for cats and kittens.
B. Treat your cats and kittens milk.
C. The benefits of milk for cats and kittens.
D. Why we must avoid giving cats and kittens milk.

Questions 35 – 37

Read poem below carefully . Then, choose the best answer for the questions that follow.

The Lake Isle of Innisfree

I will arise and go now, and go to Innisfree,
And a small cabin build there, of clay and wattles made.
Nine bean-rows will I have there, a hive for the honeybee
And live alone in the bee-loud glade.

And I shall have some peace there, for peace comes dropping slow.
Dropping from the veils of the morning to where the cricket sings;
There midnights all a glimmer, and noon a purple glow
And evening full of linnet's wings.

I will arise and go now, for always night and day
I hear lake water lapping with low sounds by the shore
While I stand on the roadway, or on the pavement grey.
I hear it in the deep heart's core.

35. What creatures are not mentioned in the poem.
- A bees                      B linnets                      C crickets                      D cicadas
36. ....midnights all a glimmer because
- A it snows at night                      B there are many stars in the sky at night
C there are many linnets                      D there are many crickets
37. The poet wants to go to Innisfree as
- A he wants to live peacefully                      B he has a good job there
C he wants to start a business                      D he wants to start a family

Questions 38 – 40

Read the extract from the short story The Pencil below carefully.

“Why don't you go along with your uncle Teh when he taps the rubber trees? You could collect the scraps.”

Zahid agreed. If he earned more than fifty cents, he could buy a ruler as well. His old one was so chewed up that the edge looked like a saw blade.

He bought the pencil. The first time he held his new possession, his hands trembled and he jumped with delight. He smiled broadly. He wanted to tell everyone about his good fortune.

At school he proudly showed his pencil to several of his friends. Some shared his happiness; others envied him.

A few days later, the highly-prized pencil was missing. Zahid was sad and told his closest friends what had happened, but it was obvious that they could do nothing to help him.

38. How do you think Zahid managed to buy the pencil?
- A He borrowed some money from his grandmother.
B His classmates helped him to buy it.
C He worked hard for it.
D He stole the money.
39. What was Zahid's feeling when he bought the pencil?
- A Happy                      B Regretful                      C Angry                      D Sad
40. The phrase his good fortune refers to
- A his saw blade                      B his new pencil
C his ruler                      D his eraser

Read the article and complete the following task.

It is very good to be healthy and there are some simple advices, which will help you to save your health, and to stay healthy, you should follow them. It is important for all of us to stay in good health. At first, remember that everyday food is supporting our bodies. Thus, you must give your body all the nutrients it needs with regular meals. Also, you have to get natural high-quality vitamins in fresh greens, and non-polluted vegetables. So, you should have them in your everyday ration. They are useful for adults, as well as for children. If you do not eat any vitamins, your body will be weak, and you can easily get sick. Another important thing you should do is to get involved in sports. It is not necessary be a kind of professional sport. All you need is to spend more time outside and lead an active way of life. These help in very big degree to keep our body strong and healthy, and your mind fresh. If you are not playing any sports, you can face obesity issue and that is very bad for your health. Yet another thing that you should better avoid is smoking and drinking. If you are ignoring my advice, then you are going to be in big troubles. I believe that health is very important for you. It is really easy to destroy it, but then it is very hard, and sometimes even impossible, to rebuild it. So, it will be a wise thing to take care of your health today.
